Privacy Policy

The Board of Trustees of the IBEW Local 654 Benefit Funds respect your right to privacy.

You may be asked to register or to provide personal information and preferences when you visit certain areas of this Web site, download free information, or request information.

The Trustees will guard the personal information you share to ensure the content and services provided on this Web site are always tailored to your current, designated preferences.

When you provide your name, email address, mailing address, or telephone number, the Trustees and their representatives may use the provided information to alert you to updated information, new services, and other information, unless you indicate that you would not like to receive these notices. Beyond their representatives, the Trustees do not offer or allow the selling of any user-provided information to third parties.

The Trustees respect the rights users give when opting to receive email communications and enforces internal policies to preserve those rights. It is the Trustees' objective to retain the long-term ability to continue to communicate with users. If you do not want the Trustees or their representatives to contact you, you may "opt out" of this preference at any time, whether online or by contacting the Benefit Funds Contract Administrator, Frank M. Vaccaro & Associates, Inc., directly. As part of your preference flexibility, you'll always have the option to opt back in and be contacted based on your previous or new preferences.

If you choose not to register or provide personal information, you can still visit some areas of the IBEW Local 654 i-Site; however, you will not have access to areas that require personal identification.
