Cookies

A "cookie" is a small summary text file that is stored by your mobile phone (e.g., iPhone or Android) or by your browser (e.g., Internet Explorer, Edge, Chrome, Safari or Firefox). Cookies allow a website to store some information about users, allowing the website to recognize a user and respond appropriately.

- The website may use cookies to collect anonymous usage statistics to track site utilization. Identifiable visitor usage information may also be stored in internal log files. We use this information to troubleshoot issues, improve our online services, and for analytical purposes, such as analyzing trends, administering the Site, tracking user movements and gathering broad demographic information.
- The website utilizes cookies to ensure basic functionality for authenticated users, including but not limited to initiating and terminating valid sessions.

Service Providers

We may employ third-party companies and individuals due to the following reasons:

- To facilitate these websites;
- To provide these websites on our behalf;
- To perform website-related services; or
- To assist us in analyzing how these websites are used.

We want to inform our website users that these third parties may have access to your Personal Information. The reason is to perform the tasks assigned to them on our behalf. However, they are obligated not to disclose or use the information for any other purpose.

Security

We value your trust in providing us your Personal Information, thus we are striving to use commercially acceptable means of protecting it. But remember that no method of transmission over the internet, or method of electronic storage is 100% secure and reliable, and we cannot guarantee its absolute security.
